What to Plant in Florida This November

Regional recommendations for North, Central & South Florida based on UF/IFAS, plus suggested OKSeeds.co varieties.

O.K.Seeds®

North Florida

TIP: Protect tender crops from occasional cold nights.

PLANTING METHOD

Best as transplants: arugula, beets, broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cabbage, cauliflower, collards, kale, kohlrabi, Swiss chard.

Direct sow: carrots, onions, radishes, turnips.

Central Florida

TIP: Keep soil evenly moist and mulched.

PLANTING METHOD

Best as transplants: arugula, beets, broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cabbage, cauliflower, collards, endive, kale, kohlrabi, lettuce, Swiss chard.

Direct sow: carrots, onions, English peas, radishes, turnips.

South Florida

TIP: Support vining crops and water at the base.

PLANTING METHOD

Best as transplants: arugula, beets, broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cabbage, cauliflower, collards, eggplant, endive, kale, kohlrabi, lettuce, peppers, tomatoes, Swiss chard.

Direct sow: beans, carrots, cucumbers, onions, English peas, southern peas, radishes, squash, turnips.

How to Grow Better

Sun
6+ hours

Loose, well-drained soil

Frequent watering for seedlings

2–3 inch mulch